ABOUT

I'm a senior marketing leader known for scaling brands, building agile teams, and delivering high-impact campaigns that drive demand and revenue. With over a decade of experience across hospitality, entertainment, tourism, finance, and digital media, I've led transformations in Australia and Asia—launching world-first experiences, revitalising heritage brands, and unlocking growth through bold creative and data-driven strategy.

I thrive at the intersection of storytelling, performance, and innovation—whether managing multi-million-dollar budgets, building integrated MarTech ecosystems, or leading award-winning campaigns. My approach blends strategic rigour with creative intuition, backed by frameworks such as TOFU-MOFU-BOFU, OKRs, and agile sprint planning.
